CORRIGENDUM

It has been observed that bidders are facing problems in uploading the required documents repeatedly for each destination wise tender. Therefore, it is clarified that bidder may upload all the required documents at any one destination and to offer bids for other destinations, the bidder may submit on the letter head that "Documents already uploaded in the tender for the destination i.e. (Name of destination)." If the required documents have already been uploaded on any tender of the respective destination the above highlighted certificate on letter head should be uploaded wherever the document is required and there is no need to upload the documents repeatedly for all the destinations. Further it is also clarified that documents attached at one destination will be considered for technical qualification for all other offered destination.
